ENADA ROMA AND ROMA AMUSEMENT SHOW OPEN TOMORROW AT THE EXHIBITION CENTER IN THE CAPITAL

From October 8th to 10th, in the Roman expo centre, the 47th edition of the Sapar event, organized by Italian Exhibition Group, will take stock of the gaming industry. Simultaneously the 2nd edition of the appointment dedicated to new entertainment for all ages, with a focus on games without cash prizes

Tuesday at 11.00 a.m. the inauguration with the opening press conference. The themes of the conferences are of great interest: attention to responsible gaming and good practices

Rome, October 7th 2019 - A double curtain rises tomorrow at the Expo Center in Rome: on the 47th edition of Enada Roma, a Sapar event dedicated to gaming and amusement machines, organized by IEG Italian Exhibition Group, and on Roma Amusement (organized by IEG as well, in collaboration with Sapar and the FEE Consortium), focused on the "new entertainment experience" for all ages, now in its 2nd edition.

The two events, starting tomorrow, Tuesday October 8th and open until Thursday October 10th at the Fiera Roma (East entrance, via Eiffel lateral of via Portuense), represent two unmissable appointments for companies and all professionals in the universe of gaming and amusement, to learn about exhibitors' news, products, services and technologies. Do not miss the conferences and events that enrich the exhibitions, also gathering institutions with producers and the entire supply chain on the most topical issues.

THE PROGRAM:

Tuesday October 8th

11.00 a.m.

Inauguration of the events. Following the opening press conference in which SAPAR will recall its actions to protect the entire gaming supply chain, with an important new feature, that of training courses for operators aimed at combating illegal and submerged gaming and preventing gambling. A moment of confrontation between all the protagonists of the supply chain on the most topical issues.
